Description of Services:

The Town Clerk acts as the Town's chief election official, recording officer, registrar of vital statistics, public records officer, and licensing officer. The Clerk works with the Board of Registrars to promote and maintain voter registration and voter records. The Clerk maintains records of adopted municipal code, bylaws, oaths of office, resignations and appointments. The Clerk's staff issues marriage licenses, dog licenses and business certificates. The Town Clerk's office responds to inquiries from the public and serves as a central information point for the Town.
